New Pesticide Rules in California

Audio with Charlotte Fadipe, California Department of Pesticide Regulations

As of January first new rules on applying pesticides near California schools go into effect. The California Department of Pesticide Regulation is reminding farmers about the added restrictions. Charlotte Fadipe (Fa-Dee-Pee) with the DPR says these rules will impact about 2,500 farmers in the state. Following the new rules also means more direct communication between schools and growers...tape
